I. Purpose

The purposes of the Library's rules for the conduct for library users are:

- To protect the rights of individuals who are in the Library to use library materials and/or services.

Such exclusion from this Library shall occur on the orders of the Director or his/her designees. In serious cases parents or police will be contacted. In this document, "withholding of library privileges" is defined as meaning that an individual may not enter or use the Library.

A. Illegal Conduct

The violation of any federal or state statute or local ordinance on library premises will also be regarded as a violation of library rules. The laws and ordinances that follow are cited by way of illustration and not limitation. These are regarded as major infractions necessitating immediate removal from the building and possible police action:

- intoxication
- fighting
- patron in building after hours without permission
- larceny
- knowing destruction, damage, defacement or removal of property
- disturbance of the peace by loud, aggressive behavior
- indecent/obscene conduct or exposure
- illicit use, sale, possession, or distribution of illegal or controlled substances
- harassment of patrons or staff

B. Additional Prohibited Behavior

1. Alcohol may not be consumed on the premises. (Out for the day.)
2. There is no smoking in any part of the building. (One warning, then out for the day.)
3. Foul or abusive language is not permitted. (One warning, then out for the day.)
4. Audio equipment is allowed only with earphones. (Two warnings, then out for the day.)
5. Boisterous behavior, running, or roughhousing is not permitted. (Two warnings, then out for the day.)
6. Animals are not permitted in the Library, except for those assisting the handicapped (such as leader dogs for the blind), or in special circumstances with the specific permission of the Director or his/her designee. (One warning then out for the day.)
7. Bicycles, skateboards, roller blades, roller skates and similar devices may not be used in the building, library driveway and parking lot.

IV. Sanctions

Persons who violate the Library's conduct code may be asked to leave the premises for the day. A second offense may bar them from the Library for a month; a third offense for a year.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, any person may, without prior notice or warning, be immediately removed from the Columbia Township Library if his/her presence or conduct on the premises poses an immediate and imminent danger to any person or property on such premises.

V. Right of Appeal

Users may appeal a decision in writing to the Library Director within 10 business days of the date of the letter stating why library privileges should be restored. The Library Director or a designee will respond to the appeal in writing within 10 business days of the date the appeal was received. Any person may appeal the Library Director's decision by sending an appeal in writing to the President of the Library Board (Columbia Township Supervisor) within 10 business days. The decision of the Library Board is final.
